Mr. N.P. Sah, Standing Counsel for the State.

Hon'ble Prafulla C. Pant, J.

None for the petitioner.

Learned Standing Counsel is present for the State.

2) By means of this writ petition, the petitioner, a Class IV employee, who was engaged on daily wages with the Animal Husbandry Department of the State, has sought his regularization in service.

3) In view of the principal of law laid down is Secretary State of Karnataka Vs. Uma Devi, reported in (2006) 4 Supreme Court Cases page 01, that daily wage workers or the persons employed without undergoing regular selection process under the rules, should not be directed to be absorbed or regularized in the service, against the Constitutional Scheme of public employment, this Court is not inclined to issue direction to regularise services of the petitioner.

4) Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed. Interim order, if any, stands vacated. (All pending applications in this Petition also stand disposed of).
